

9:10 P.M.
Monday Eve.

Dear Audrey:

I've got my full field pack rolled (blanket, $\frac{1}{2}$ of a pup tent, shaving equipment, Tooth brush & paste, towel and soap, knife, fork, spoon, metal plate and that frying pan-like utensil - Later on we will carry our overcoat and comforter over the top) and raincoat) cleaned my rifle, and skinned my shoes and still have all of 20 minutes before light out.

Also got that $10.70 check cashed tonight. Don't know when we will get paid but it had better be soon.

It started raining tonight just as we got back in at 5:00. Didn't have to stand retreat at 5:20.

Today was spent in drilling, a show on first aid, and a 2 hour lecture on the same, plus plenty of exercise and double time.

Tomorrow morning all of us that wear glasses take our gas masks and get checked.

In the afternoon we are to go through one of the ~~of~~ obstacle courses. Soon we will go through a gas chamber and the infiltration course, where they fire over (I hope)
us with a machine gun.

Some of the boys are rather worried about these three things but I figure several thousand others could do it and I can to.

went to a show last night.
It was "North Star" a Russian spectacle. Good but too serious for an Army Camp.

All for show, from Goddnight and,
Ford, Harold.
