

Duke University

11 November

Dear Gianni + Pops,

It was really nice to get your birthday gift. Now that I'm 20 I guess no one can call me a teenager any more.

Everything is going well here. I'm pretty sure I like Duke better than Richmond. There's a lot more things to do here.

We get out for Thanksgiving in about a week. I just realized that it's about 3 months since I've been home.

One of the choirs I'm in will be touring over Easter. We'll be going through Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, New York + Boston. It sounds like a fun trip.

I guess we'll be coming up to visit over Thanksgiving. I have some slides I've taken here which I hope will be good enough to show you.

See you soon.

love,
Craig
