November 4, 1904,

My dear sister,

I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know that we are all well to day. How are you all and how do you like Loudoun do you like Loudoun better than Virginia Tazewell.

When are you all coming out are you all coming here next fall. And if you ~~are~~ do not come out.

Letter written to Margaret (Maggie) Corell Graham from her brother Oscar Corell. Oscar was around 11 years old at this time. WR and Maggie Graham moved their family from Tazewell to Loudoun in early 1904.

My dear sister,

I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know that we are all well today. How are you all and how do you like Loudoun? Do you like Loudoun better than Tazewell? When are you all coming here next? Love all.

Which I hope you will.
I will hope for this time. With love to all.
Write soon.

Your Brother.
~~Truly~~
Oscar Corell.

And if you do not come out which I hope you will, I will hope for this time.
With love to all. Write soon.

Your brother, Oscar Corell
