ALL KINDS OF LIVE STOCK
HAY, GRAIN, ETC.

WATERFORD, LOUDOUN CO., VA. March 31 - 1905

Mr. W. R. Graham.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of 30th inst. received. I fail to see anything personal in the words I used in my letter to you, I will add also that I believe my brother to be an honest a man as you or anyone of my acquaintance, & if you will take the trouble to investigate you will find him a Christian gentleman, he says in the letter I forwarded you your hay is unsound. I ought if for sound, you simply owe me the difference between sound & unsound you sent me $7.00 you still owe me the bal(ance) according to statement sent you.

Letter to WR Graham from W.C. James, a dealer in hay and live stock. This letter concerns a dispute regarding some hay that WR Graham farmed and sold to Mr. James.

Dear sir,

Your letter of 30th received. I fail to see anything personal in the words I used in my letter to you. I will add also that I believe my brother to be an honest a man as you or anyone of my acquaintance, and if you will take the trouble to investigate you will find him a Christian gentleman. He says in the letter I forwarded you your hay is unsound. I might offer (?) you simply owe me the difference between sound and unsound. You sent me $7.00. You still owe me the bal(ance) according to statement sent you.
