

Office of
Treasurer of Tazewell Co.

H. P. Brittain, Treasurer.

Tazewell, Va., Jan. 3rd 1902

Dear Will,

I had fine luck with the Richlands ticket, Got to pay it without a scrap. I enclose you herewith the tickets, - town & county. We have not had the snow you mention, I don't think it has exceeded 4 inches at any time. The man who offers a bill last legislation for bounty on Crow scalps must have been from your County. I suppose you told me the truth about how much corn they destroyed for you, - its an uphill business making our people believe it. That big eagle reported in yesterdays Times Dispatch surely was captured near your locality. The paper stated that it is capable of carrying off a sheep & that it is larger than the Condor. Be careful how you talk before the children. Your cousin Ike George has about

Letter to WR Graham from H.P. Brittain, friend and Treasurer of Tazewell County.

Tazewell, Va. Jan. 3, 1902

Dear Will,

I had fine luck with the Richlands ticket. Got to pay it without a scrap. I enclose you herewith the tickets, - town and county. We have not had the snow you mention. I don't think it has exceeded 4 inches at any time. The man who offers a bill last legislation for bounty on (crow?) scraps must have been from your county. I suppose you told me the truth about how much corn they destroyed for you. It's an uphill business making our people believe it. That big eagle reported in yesterdays Times Dispatch surely was captured near your locality. The paper stated that it is capable of carrying off a sheep and that it is larger than the condor. Be careful how you talk before the children.

Completed a very handsome stone wall in front of the Harrison, Gillespie & Graham plot at the old cemetery.
Hope you enjoyed Christmas. Everyone seemed to be in a good humor here.
I have been sprinkling the streets since Jan 1st. Have a front seat on the water-waggon.

Wishing you a happy & prosperous new year with kindest regards to your wife & family. Remain

Your friend
H.P. Brittain

Your cousin Ike George has about completed a very handsome stone wall in front of the Harrison, Gillespie & Graham plot at the old cemetery.
Hope you enjoyed Christmas.
Everyone seemed to be in a good humor here. I have been sprinkling the streets since Jan 1st. Have a front seat on the water wagons.

Wishing you a happy and prosperous new year. With kindest regards to your wife and family.

Your friend, H.P. Brittain