Dear Will,

I received yours of 1st inst. in relation to Sam going to your place.

You have the whole matter down just right and just as I want it.

Sam is anxious to go, and I will write you when to meet him.

I thank you for your kindness. I want Sam to be a man and see something of practical life as soon as possible.

I promise to aid you all I can in making him contented and keeping up his courage.

If he likes to work he will be contented.

My last letter about him contained the exact facts. Love to all your household.

Yours truly
S. C. Graham
