

Bedford City Va
July 2nd 1892

Mr. Will Graham,
Tazewell C H Va.

You will doubtless be greatly surprised at this communication from me, but so grave an accusation has been brought against me that I would fair clear it away.

A short time ago such report as this reached my ears; - That you had greatly annoyed myself and others by frequent references to the great loss you had sustained in the death of your wife. Do not

Bedford City, Va
July 2, 1892

Mr. Will Graham
Tazewell Court House, Va.

You will doubtless be greatly surprised at this communication from me, but so grave an accusation has been brought against me that I would fair clear it away.

A short time ago such report as this reached my ears; That you had greatly annoyed myself and others by frequent references to the great loss you had sustained in the death of your wife.

Think me indelicate Mr. Graham. I must mention this fact that I may explain.

Now if you were wounded at what you thought an unkind thoughtless speech from me, fancy how deeply pained I was to hear knowing it to be untrue.

I can only deny the accusation, but I do deny it and positively I feel sure that you can find no one who will add testimony to any kind friend's assertion. I said no such thing of you nor did I hear any other young lady say any such thing, and in justice to myself and friends as well as yourself I felt it my duty and pleasure to explain away the impression you would very naturally have.

Do not think me indelicate Mr. Graham. I must mention this fact that I may explain.

Now if you were wounded at what you thought an unkind thoughtless speech from me, fancy how deeply pained I was to hear knowing it to be untrue.

I can only deny the accusation but I do deny it and positively I feel sure that you can find no one who will add testimony to say kind friend's assertion. I said no such thing of you nor did I hear any other young lady say any such thing and no justice to myself and friends as well as yourself.

If I had said such things as has been imputed to me I would have been very sorry for you to hear it; but not saying it I am more grieved than I can express.

I have been often enough under the chastening rod to be in touch with the grief of any one and this you did not intimate to me your own peculiar sorrow. I knew of it and gave you my sincere sympathy. This poor writing of mine seems very unsatisfactory to me, but I hope it will suffice to remove the sting of a

I felt it my duty and pleasure to explain away the impression you would very naturally have.

If I had said such thing as has been imputed to me I would have been very sorry for you to hear it but not saying it I am more grieved than I can express.

I have been often enough under the chastening rod to be in touch with the grief of any one and though you did not intimate to me your own peculiar sorrow I knew of it and gave you my sincere sympathy. This poor writing of mine seems very unsatisfactory to me but I hope it will suffice to remove the sting of a false impression and perhaps sometime I may see you for further explanation.

4

false impression and perhaps sometime I may see you for further explanation.

I am at the Normal here in Bedford and having a very pleasant time. Will be here for three weeks and if my letter is not satisfactory would you please let me know.

Pardon the intrusion upon your time. I am much happier to clear up this matter.

Your friend
Georgia Lee Buchanan

P.O. Box 143

I am at the Normal here in Bedford and having a very pleasant time.
Will be here for three weeks and if my letter is not satisfactory won't you please let me know.

Pardon the intrusion upon your time. I am much happier to clear up this matter.

Your friend,
Georgia Lee Buchanan