Dr. Graham Joins Med Group Here

Dr. Charles M. Graham, Jr., 30, has just joined Dr. T. H. Haas and Dr. Ronald Elswick in their office on Eighth Street.

Dr. Graham, who moved to Radford last Saturday, will practice obstetrics and gynecology in Radford.

He attended the University of Richmond and then took his medical training at the Medical College of Virginia where he also did his intern and residence work.

For the past year after his completion of training, Dr. Graham has been an instructor at the Medical College of Virginia.

A native of Virginia, Dr. Graham was born at Purcellville, but has lived in Richmond for the past 10 years while attending school and taking medical training.

He is married and has taken an apartment at the Georgetwon Apartments.

His favorite pastime is golf but he also enjoys participation sports as tennis and handball.

Dr. Graham spent most of yesterday and today getting acquainted with his colleagues and Radford's medical facilities.

"Radford is a lovely town and I know that Mrs. Graham and I shall enjoy living and working here," Dr. Graham said.
