

Funeral Set Friday for M. H. Yakey

M. Henry Yakey, 75, retired farmer and churchman, died in Frederick Memorial Hospital early Wednesday where he had been a patient for four weeks. His wife, Florence Slater Yakey, died two weeks ago in the same hospital.

Mr. Yakey was a lifelong resident of the Lovettsville section, his parents being Thomas S. and Elizabeth Ellen James Yakey. He was a member of St. James Evangelical and Reformed Church, Lovettsville, and in past years he had served various church offices, at one time deacon and then an elder of his church. Their farm home was near Taylorstown.

Mr. Yakey is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Katherine B. Arnold and Mrs. Edith Y. Bruin, both of Lovettsville, several nieces and one nephew.

Services will be held Friday (March 2) at 2 o'clock from Brown's Funeral Home, the Rev. Richard Johnson officiating.

The pallbearers will be Richard Y. Arnold, Charles M. Graham, Henry Erbe, Charles Davis, J. R. Beck and George E. Grove.
