

Mahlon D. Arnold Dies At Lucketts

Mahlon D. Arnold, aged 89 years, a well-known retired farmer of the Lucketts community, died at his home on Friday, February 18. He was the son of the late John and Matilda Beachley Arnold of Arnoldstown, Md., but his family moved to Loudoun when he was eight years old and since then he had always made his home here. He was the last of the original stockholders who had owned stock in the Peoples National Bank when it was organized in 1888.

In 1879, he married Miss Emma Huffer of Broad Run, Md., who died in 1916. From this marriage one son, Cleveland Arnold of Lucketts and three daughters, Mrs. Clara Thomas of Buckeystown, Md., Mrs. Mae Lockett of Lucketts and Mrs. Zella Zimmerman of Frederick, Md., survive.

He is also survived by his second wife, Mrs. Leola Magaha Arnold and three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Mock of Purcellville, Mrs. Martha Womeldorph of Ashland, Kentucky, and Mrs. Rachel Howard of Lucketts. Other survivors are nine grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, a half-brother, Joseph Arnold and a half sister, Miss Mattie Arnold both of Lucketts.

Funeral services were held Sunday, February 20 at 3:00 p. m. from the home, Rev. E. Summers McGavock of the Presbyterian Church at Lucketts officiating. A quartet composed of E. R. and Reed Galleher, Frank Orrison and George Ward furnished the music.

The honorary pall-bearers were Bruce McIntosh, Fred Saunders, Reginald Nixon, Reed Galleher, Dr. John Gibson and Arthur Gibson. The acting pall-bearers were B. W. Irving and Elbert McKimmey, Clark Frye, Edgar Barnhouse and Fred Howser. Interment was in the Union Cemetery at Leesburg.
