

ner, but had resided at Tower City and Sheridan for the past twenty-five years, since his marriage to the former Eva Adams, of this place. He was a man of exemplary character and habits, well thought of in this community, and his home life was a happy one. He had been under a doctor's care for low blood pressure in recent weeks.

Besides his wife he is survived by his father, four brothers, Joseph, of Muir; Robert and Fred, of Williams-town; Albert, of Lykens, and one sister, Mrs. Elva Crozier, of Williams-town.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services at the residence by Rev. Geo. P. Stoudt, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery, and is in charge of funeral director Dreisigacker.

MRS. IRA UPDEGROVE

Mrs. Sadie Driscilla Updegrove, 60 years, widow of the late Ira Updegrove, died at her home at Muir on Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock, her death being caused by pneumonia, from which she was ill only three days. Previously, however, she had been in poor health for several years.

She was a lifelong resident of Muir, having been born at that place on November 23, 1881, a daughter of David Drum and wife, nee Elizabeth Fesig, both deceased. Her husband preceeded her in death almost two years ago.

To survive Mrs. Updegrove leaves one brother, Jacob Drum, of Muir, and one sister, Mrs. Mayme Hand, of Tower City, and the following children: Mrs. Ellen Bush, Mrs. Reuben Shadle, of Tower City; Clayton Updegrove, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Dorothy Hoover, of Muir; Pvt. Chas. H. Updegrove, Ft. George Meade, Md.; Mrs. Andrew Paul, Mrs. Hilda Barry, Muir; Mrs. Harry Stutzman, of Philadelphia; Earl Updegrove, Washington, D. C.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence at Muir. Services were conducted at the home by Rev. W. J. Friday, pastor of Grace Evangelical Church, Muir, and interment made in Greenwood cemetery, Tower City. Funeral director Dreisigacker had charge.
