
W. W. Graham

Graveside services were held in Lakeview cemetery, Hamilton Sunday afternoon for William Wade Graham, 46, who died Friday at his residence in Washington. He had been in ill health for several months. The services were conducted by Rev. Albert

E. Simmons, Presbyterian minister of Waterford.

Born near Hamilton, he was the son of the late W. R. and Maggie J. Graham. He was educated at VPI, Blacksburg, and Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida.

He is survived by three children, John, William and Mary Graham; five sisters, Mrs. J. J. Spring, Lovettsville; Mrs. Anne G. VanDeventer, Leesburg; Mrs. J. Derry Tribby, Purcellville; Mrs. Carter Anderson, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. John Monroe, Arlington, and two brothers, S. O. Graham and C. M. Graham, both of Purcellville.
