

ements

Whirley-Dillon Vows Given

On April 7 Tracie Lynn Whirley of Lincoln and Floyd H. Dillon III of Philomont were married in a 7 p.m. ceremony at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Purcellville.

The bride is the daughter of William M. Whirley Sr. of Round Hill. Guardians of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Cook of Lincoln.

The bridegroom is the son of Floyd H. and Nancy Graham Dillon of Philomont.

Officiating at their wedding was the Rev. Harry Hoffman, rector of St. Peter's. Deborah Grow of New York, the bride's cousin, accompanied by Barbara Jennings, furnished the wedding music, "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer." Olive Johnson provided organ music for the ceremony.

Miss Whirley wore a formal length Victorian-style gown of ivory with Alecon lace and accents of seed pearls on the fitted bodice. The veil was attached to a Victorian-style hat which featured pearls and alecon lace matching the gown.

She carried a bouquet of pink yarrae, white roses and baby's breath given by her aunt, Barbara Cochran, who provided the wedding and reception flowers.

A cross necklace given the bride by the bridegroom was arranged within the bouquet.

Maid of honor was Patty Cochran of Lincoln, the bride's cousin, and Daphne Dillon, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid. Amy Jo Harlow, cousin to the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. They wore floor-length gowns of lavender, pink and baby blue and carried bouquets accenting the color of their dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Dillon III

Best man was Dale Dillon of Philomont, brother to the groom, and attendants were Neal Dillon of Philomont, the groom's brother, and Billy Whirley, the bride's brother. Greeting ushers were Bob Horn and Wayne Costello, both of Philomont.

Grandparents of the groom are Mrs. Frances Cornwell and Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Graham of Purcellville. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Roberts of Hillsboro and Mrs. Isabel J. Whirley of Hamilton.

The bride, a 1982 graduate of Loudoun Valley High School, is employed by Sperry Engineering at Reston. The groom, a 1979 graduate of Loudoun Valley High School, is employed by Symon's Meadow Grove Farms at Bluemont.

A reception was held in the church's fellowship hall where a three-tier cake was served.

The couple took a wedding trip to Colorado Springs and are now residing in Philomont.